

Ranked Choice Voting for Colorado
1536 Wynkoop Street, #908
Denver, Colorado 80121

RCV for Colorado Credentials

RCV for Colorado's politically diverse team has been sorting facts from nonsense in the election reform space since 2016.

Key Team Members

Linda Templin, MPA, Executive Director (Past Board President)

Education: Master of Public Administration & Bachelors in Political Science

RCV Experience: Since 2016 over 100 presentations

Thomas Alley, PhD, Board President

Education: Doctorate in Physics, Teaching Experience at USAFA and AFIT

RCV Experience: Since 2016 over dozens of presentations

Policy Committee has collected feedback since 2018

Voter Stakeholders: LWV, Independence Institute, America Votes, Common Cause, & Council Members for municipalities exploring RCV

Candidate Stakeholders: Democratic, Republican, Libertarian, Green, Forward Parties, Unite America (on behalf of unaffiliated candidates)

Administrative Stakeholders: Office of the Secretary of State, Colorado County Clerks Association, Local Elections Divisions: Denver, Broomfield, and Fort Collins

RCV Analytic Work Product

Voting Methods Compared

RCV Potential Use in Broomfield Analysis

RCV Potential Use in Denver Analysis

RCV Implementation Basalt 2020 Study (link)

RCV Implementation Boulder 2023 Study (link)

Policy Development

Local

Advisor to Boulder 2020 (municipal legislation draft suggestions)

Advisor to Broomfield 2021 (municipal legislation draft suggestions)

Advisor to Fort Collins 2022 (municipal legislation draft suggestions)

State

HB21-1071 - Expansion of RCV (drafted needs statement & testified)

SoS Rule 26 - Ranked Voting Methods (testimony on updates)

Notoriety

Proportional Democracy Includes Everyone (link)

Ballot Issue 2E Just Makes Sense (link)

###

RCV for Colorado is an independent grassroots organization not affiliated with the 131 campaign.

"RCV for Colorado supports the use of Ranked-Choice Voting (RCV) in the General Election as called for by Proposition 131. However, 131 uses plurality voting in the primary, which we do not support. Overall, therefore, we take a neutral position on 131 as a whole."